

EDI Mandate Market Conditions

State Compliance Mandates on the Rise

Along with other initiatives across the healthcare industry, several states have begun to mandate that all claims be processed electronically vs. paper, including these types of billings, with several more on the horizon.

